

April 2006

While on hiatus from Everybody Hates Chris, Vincent has made many guest singing appearances at local events near his home town. At a recent event, The 2006 State Basketball Championship for Special Olympics, Vincent was moved by the determination and courage of his peers. He so much enjoyed the experience, that he will be expanding his relationship with Special Olympics. His goal is to help in breaking down the stereotypes that sometimes exist amongst teenagers about people with intellectual disabilities. "These Athletes are an inspiration to everyone. Each of us should possess hearts and courage like theirs," expressed Vincent.

Vincent will be attending the State Summer Special Olympics event in Tampa at the end of April.

For additional information on this program, please visit:
www.sofl.org/state\_basketball\_tournam ent.aspx

September 2006

Well, hiatus is over and Vincent has been keeping plenty busy.

Recently, he has been hard at work creating an album which will contain music both written and performed by Vincent. Look for it soon in the Music section.

Vincent was nominated for a teen choice award for "Choice Sidekick" . The show aired live on Fox on August 20, 2006, at 8pm ET/PT.

Additionally, Vincent continues his work with the Special Olympics by participating in a Webinar which aired as a live feed at the National Games. Vincent was introduced by Dr. Tim Shriver as the national "Youth Ambassador". Vincent's goal is to help in breaking down the stereotypes that sometimes exist amongst teenagers about people with intellectual disabilities. "These Athletes are an inspiration to everyone. Each of us should possess hearts and courage like theirs," expressed Vincent.

October 2006

The second season of "Everybody Hates Chris" kicks off Monday Nights @ 8:00pm on the new CW Network. Vincent was recently nominated for a Teen Choice Award for Choice Sidekick for his role of Greg in the critically acclaimed show.

Production will begin in October on the Disney animated series, Phineas and Ferb. Vincent plays the role of Phineas...

Vincent continues to work as National Youth Ambassador for the Special Olympics. He will participate in the Pier del Sol on Santa Monica Pier as well as the Southern California Fall Games.

Music remains a passion for Vincent. Listen to his first original song by clicking here...

December 2006

Production of the 2nd season of "Everybody Hates Chris" is well under way and going strong Monday nights at 8 pm. In fact, the cast was recently awarded their second Family Friendly Award for Best Comedy. The award show will air December 12th at 9pm on the CW Network.

Vincent is currently working on Disney's new animated series, Phineas and Ferb. Vincent plays the lead role of Phineas.

Vincent continues his charity work as National Youth Ambassador for the Special Olympics. Recently, Vincent has become involved with Camp Ronald McDonald. At the Camp Ronald McDonald Christmas party Vincent had the children and their families singing along, while performing with the band Playback.

Vincent's original music is now on sale at itunes.com! Click here to listen to a sample of his CD.